

HID Vento™

Your Key to Modern, Straightforward Security

Where security meets simplicity

Introducing HID Vento—seamless access control to protect people and property at a price that suits your budget. Designed for mid-size organizations, HID Vento delivers essential functions such as mobile access while keeping security simple.

Access control, right-sized

HID Vento offers a straightforward combination of reader, plastic cards and mobile credentials. You get the essential features for secure door access as well as premium features that save time and money.

HID VENTO READER: NEXT-GENERATION EASE

The HID Vento reader is a high-security RFID and Bluetooth reader exclusively for use with the HID Vento card and HID Mobile Access credentials, as well as CSN support for selected credentials. It's mobile-enabled right out of the box, field-configurable, and saves energy with intelligent power management (IPM).

HID VENTO CARD: SECURITY PLUS ECONOMY

The HID Vento card, exclusively for use with the HID Vento reader, features high-security encryption to resist cloning and help prevent unauthorized access. Cards come preprogrammed, with a 32-bit, non-repeating ID and can be custom-printed for your organization. Deployment is easy and economical.

HID MOBILE ACCESS®: READY FOR THE DIGITAL FUTURE

As part of the HID Vento solution, HID Mobile Access credentials provide top-tier security and convenience. You can issue, change or revoke credentials instantly over the air. Cardless access also means less plastic, advancing sustainability goals.

Easy to order, install and manage

A single part number makes ordering HID Vento easy. Rollout is seamless and scales smoothly as your organization grows. Maintenance is minimal, with proven HID reliability. And you can expect fewer issues with lost credentials, because people take greater care with their mobile devices.

Security you can trust

Eliminate the risks of keys, magstripes and other legacy systems. HID Vento meets the demands of the modern world, helping you safeguard your operations while focusing on your business. It's backed by a global warranty, further enhancing peace of mind.

Modernize access control with HID Vento

Whether you're upgrading outdated systems or considering access control for the first time, HID Vento offers premium advantages at a price that suits your budget. See how you can advance security for today and tomorrow with HID Vento—from HID, powering trusted identities around the world.
